

Mike Brazier Bio

Mike Brazier has thirty years of professional business experience, focusing on leadership, sales, development, and operations. He's received national awards for sales achievement and regional achievement accommodations. Mike has been a successful business owner and business executive in multiple industries. He's consulted with multiple organizations ranging from corporate, manufacturing, retail, service-related, and nonprofits.